Jigsaw, the mindful approach to PSHE is a progressive and spiral scheme of learning. In planning the lessons, Jigsaw PSHE ensures that learning from previous years is revisited and extended, adding new concepts, knowledge and skills, year on year as appropriate. The table below draws out the spiral knowledge and skills progression within the Relationships Puzzle (unit of work) including key vocabulary introduced this year and suggestions for Family Learning. Please ask your child's school for details of any adaptations they have made to the programme in line with their school policy as some content and vocabulary may have been changed or be taught in a different year group.

What can you do if you and your friend have had an argument? Can we share what we are grateful for in our family? How does Jigsaw Jo help in your Jigsaw lessons? Can you explain to me what 'Mending Friendships' is about?
Learning about family relationships widens to include roles and responsibilities in a family and the importance of co-operation, appreciation and trust. Friendships are also revisited with a focus on falling out and mending friendships. This becomes more formalised and the children learn and practise two different strategies for conflict resolution (Solve-it-together and Mending Friendships). Children consider the importance of trust in relationships and what this feels like. They also learn about two types of secret, and why 'worry secrets' should always be shared with a trusted adult. Children reflect upon different types of physical contact in relationships, which are acceptable and which ones are not. They practise strategies for being assertive when someone is hurting them or being unkind. The children also discuss people who can help them if they are worried or scared.

What would you do if you saw or heard something online that made you feel worried? What rights do children have? How could we use the Solve-it-together technique at home?
In this Puzzle children revisit family relationships and identify the different expectations and roles that exist within the family home. They identify why stereotypes can be unfair and may not be accurate e.g. Mum is the carer, Dad goes to work. They also look at careers and why stereotypes can be unfair in this context. They learn that families should be founded on love, respect, appreciation, trust and cooperation. Children are reminded about the solve-it-together technique for negotiating conflict situations and the concept of a win-win outcome is introduced. Online relationships through gaming and Apps is explored and children are introduced to some rules for staying safe online. Children also learn that they are part of a global community and they are connected to others they don't know in many ways e.g. through global trade. They investigate the wants and needs of other children who are less fortunate and compare these with their own. Children's universal rights are also revisited.

What happened? How did you resolve it? • Do you have any friends that you fall out with a lot? • How does Jigsaw Jaz help you learn about friendships? • Does Calm Me time help you stay calm?
	Learning in this year group starts focussing on the emotional aspects of relationships and friendships. With this in mind, children explore jealousy and loss/ bereavement. They identify the emotions associated with these relationship changes, the possible reasons for the change and strategies for coping with the change. The children learn that change is a natural in relationships and they will experience (or may have already experienced) some of these changes. Children revisit skills of negotiation particularly to help manage a change in a relationship. They also learn that sometimes it is better if relationships end, especially if they are causing negative feelings or they are unsafe. Children are taught that relationship endings can be amicable.

Children learn about the importance of self-esteem and ways this can be boosted. This is important in an online context as well as off-line, as mental health can be damaged by excessive comparison with others. This leads onto a series of lessons that allow the children to investigate and reflect upon a variety of positive and negative online/ social media contexts including gaming and social networking. They learn about age -limits and also age-appropriateness. Within these lessons, children are taught the SMARRT internet safety rules and they apply these in different situations. Risk, pressure and influences are revisited with a focus on the physical and emotional aspects of identifying when something online or in social media feels uncomfortable or unsafe. Children are taught about grooming and how people online can pretend to be whoever they want. Rights, responsibilities and respect are revisited with an angle on technology use. Screen time is also discussed and children find ways to reduce their own screen time. This Puzzle aims to help children to be more discerning when viewing anything online or on social media.

Understand the feelings associated with my role in my family 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> How can mindfulness help you with your relationships with others? Can you think of a time when things outside your control affected the way you behaved in a friendship? Did you learn anything that might help you in the future? Who are you connected to? Are you connected in the same way? How do you think your relationships with your family change as you get older? What about with your friends? How do you feel about this? What are you looking forward to as you become more independent? What qualities do you bring to your relationships? What qualities do you value in your friends and family? Who can you talk to if you are having problems in one of your relationships? Why do you need to be careful with what you see and read online? How could you help other people understand if something was authentic/true or not? What could you do to ensure a 'win-win' situation? What can you do when things change in a relationship?
In this Puzzle, children explore the different types of relationships they have with different people, and consider the qualities that they and others bring to these. They reflect on how their relationships with different friends and family members may change as they grow and how their emotions and experiences can affect how they manage different situations. They will explore different ways that their own feelings may change and how this could affect them. The Puzzle also explores when it is good to be assertive, and how they can express their feelings in a way that is constructive and reflects their role and/or responsibilities as they grow. Online relationships are also discussed, and how it is important to be discerning when looking at any content online.
